PLANNING BOARD REVIEWS SUBDIVISIONS

The Madison County Planning Board will meet again on Monday, October 30th, at the County Courthouse in Virginia City. An informal work session beginning at 5:00 p.m. will give Board members a chance to review and discuss their standard operating procedures. Beginning at 6:00 p.m., the review of four subdivision applications will take place: (1) Reeves Minor Subdivision, a lot split south of Alder; (2) Long Minor Subdivision, a lot split in the Yellowstone Club near Big Sky; (3) Mountain Club Phase I, a residential development adjacent to the Mountain Village at Big Sky; and (4) Antelope Trails Minor Subdivision, a five-lot proposal in Waterloo.

Additional agenda items include a pre-application review of an eight-lot Bear Creek Estates development proposal east of Cameron. A conservation easement in the Ruby Valley near Laurin will be reviewed, and the County's development impact fee feasibility study findings will be discussed.

Planning Board meetings are open to the public. For more information, contact the Madison County Planning Office at (406) 843-5250.
